

JULY 9TH-JULY 12TH | MIAMI, FLORIDA

2015

SOUTHERN SCHOOL

FOR WORKING WOMEN

Know your Rights: Working in a Globalized Environment

Join working women throughout the South for four days of training and networking. Women representing several unions, and backgrounds join forces to share and develop leadership skills that will impact their dedication and hard work in the labor movement. Participants will have the opportunity to attend various workshops and sessions on the latest economic, social and political trends affecting labor and women.

TENTATIVE CURRICULUM

Organizing In a Right to Work Environment | Leadership Skills for Women | Know Your Rights: What Is Your Work Worth? | Handling Workplace Conflicts | Union Communication Skills | Privatization and the Attack on Public Sector Jobs | Asserting Your Rights at Work; Race, Class, Ethnicity and Gender in the Workplace | Why Organize Immigrants? | What is DACA/DAPA? | How to Run Immigration Clinics as a Tool for Organizing?

Center for Labor Research & Studies

11200 SW 8th Miami, FL 33199
 Florida International University
 Modesto Maidique Campus (MMC)
 (305) 348-2371 | <http://labor.fiu.edu>

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Cost

Tuition Rate: $ 425.00
 (includes accommodation, meals, instruction and materials)

Commuter Rate: $ 325.00
 (includes meals, instruction and materials)

How to Register

Online registration will be available
 May 1st, 2015 @ Eventbrite.com

Deadlines

All fees are due by June 1st, 2015

Scholarships

Limited number of scholarships are available. For Scholarship Application, click here

Special Needs

For Special Needs (mobility, dietary, translation, childcare, etc.) click the link below

Workshop Selection

For Workshop Selection, click the link below

Click Here For :

Special Needs
 Workshop Selection

Link will be available May 1st, 2015

Additional Questions

Contact Johanna or Danay,
 Center for Labor Research and Studies
 Florida International University
 By email: labor@fiu.edu
 By phone: 305-348-2371

Hosted By

Center for Labor Research and Studies
 Florida International University
 For Summer School updates visit :

<http://labor.fiu.edu/>

Sponsors

United Association for Labor Education (UALE)
 Berger-Marks Foundation
 United Association for Labor Education in Cooperation with
 AFL-CIO